

Myths Come Alive

Secondary

Challenge 1: Creature Creation

Research, illustrate and describe a mythical creature from any culture. Pop out your creation and keep it as a card once you are done.

Name of mythical creature:

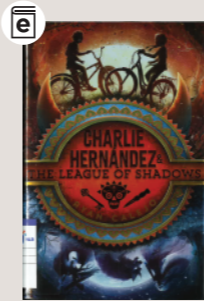

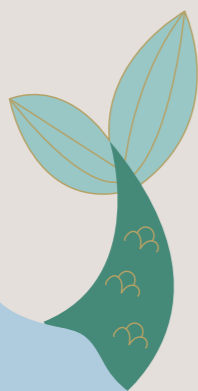

Describe this mythical creature.

What is the story behind this mythical creature?

Why did you choose to draw this mythical creature?

Pop out line

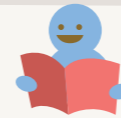

Book

Title: Charlie Hernández & the League of Shadows, page 3
Author: Ryan Calejo
Call No.: Y CAL
Publisher: Aladdin, 2018

Excerpt

Myths, my abuela used to say, are truths long forgotten by the world. Which is probably why she collected them the way some people collected stamps. Or mugs with pictures of kittens on them. She gathered tales of enormous, horned, snakelike sea creatures, of two headed vampire dogs with glowing red eyes, of terrifying man-eating ghouls that stalk the night, searching for naughty children to kidnap. The myths came from all over the Spanish speaking world. From Madrid to Quito. Mexico City to Buenos Aires. Most of them hundreds of years old, almost as old as the cultures that had inspired them.

Let's Discuss

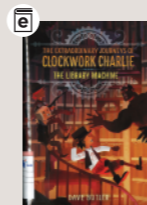

1. What are some myths from your culture?

Answer:

2. What role do you think myths play in various cultures?

Answer:

Check out these books:

Title: The Library Machine
Author: Dave Butler
Call No.: J BUT
Publisher: Alfred A Knopf, 2018

Title: The Sixth Stone
Author: Sazma Samir
Call No.: Y SING SAM
Publisher: Kitaab International, 2018

Title: Hua Mulan: Legendary Woman Warrior
Authors: Xu Deyuan and Jiang Wei
Call No.: Y 398.210951 XU
Publisher: Asiapac Books, 2018

All book covers are copyright of the respective publishers.

Available as an eBook on the NLB catalogue at www.nlb.gov.sg

National Library Board
Singapore

Challenge 2: My Very Own Myth

Create your own myth.
*Ask yourself these questions: Is your myth about a place, an object or a creature?
How long ago did it happen? Where did the story begin?*

This story is about _____(name of your myth)

About this mythical creature:

